Ginger's Plan™

Group Activities

Fun, interactive activities for classrooms, after-school programs, and community groups that build safety awareness, teamwork, and confidence!

Safety Circle

A group discussion activity to share ideas and learn from each other.

How to Play:

1. Sit in a circle.
2. The leader asks a safety question.
3. Take turns sharing your thoughts.
4. Listen to others with respect.

Discussion Questions:

- What does it mean to be safe?
- Who are trusted adults in your life?
- What can you do if you feel uncomfortable?
- How can we look out for and support our friends?

Safety Team Challenge

Work together in small groups to solve safety problems, complete tasks, and show what you've learned!

Activity Ideas (Choose One or More):

- ☐ Safety Scavenger Hunt – Find safety items or signs around the room or school (e.g., exit sign, first aid kit).
- ☐ Safety Quiz Bowl – Teams answer safety questions for points.
- ☐ Build a Safety Kit – Use a list and pictures to create a basic emergency kit.
- ☐ Create a Safety Poster – Design a poster that shares a key safety message (e.g., "Be Aware, Be Safe!").

Act It Out!
Safety Role-Play

Work in groups to act out real-life situations and practice safe choices.

How to Play:

1. Choose a scenario from the list.
2. Plan a short role-play (1–2 minutes).
3. Act it out for the group.
4. After each performance, discuss:
   - What was the safe choice?
   - What else could be done?

Role-Play Scenarios:

- ☐ A stranger asks for personal information.
- ☐ You get separated from your group.
- ☐ You feel uncomfortable online.
- ☐ A friend is being bullied.
- ☐ You find a lost item (e.g., a phone or wallet).
- ☐ You need help and must decide who to ask.
